

Health Insurance Options After a Job Loss

Losing employer coverage? Find insurance that meets your needs.

Health and Dental Plans on Washington Healthplanfinder

- Washington Healthplanfinder is an online marketplace for individuals and families to find, compare and enroll in health coverage.
- All health plans offered through Washington Healthplanfinder provide essential health benefits and preventative services, such as shots and screenings.
- Depending on your household size and level of income, you may qualify for tax credits and other savings on health coverage.
- These plans are available during open enrollment (Nov. 1 - Jan. 15) or within 60 days of a "qualifying event" (such as loss of employer coverage; change in household income; change in household size).
- You can also use Washington Healthplanfinder to see if you qualify for Washington Apple Health (Medicaid). You can apply for Apple Health coverage year-round.

Find the right plan on Washington Healthplanfinder at wahealthplanfinder.org or the WAPlanfinder Mobile App.

What about COBRA?

- COBRA is a federal law that may allow you to temporarily keep your employer-sponsored health coverage. When you are separated from a job, you may be offered COBRA by your employer.
- Health coverage under COBRA can be costly. Before you accept COBRA, we encourage you to review the options and pricing available on Washington Healthplanfinder.
